

PPH Learning Collaborative Application Checklist

Below is a list of the items needed to complete AWHONN's Postpartum Hemorrhage (PPH) Quality Improvement (QI) Learning Collaborative application.

Quality Improvement Survey

- Completed AWHONN PPH Quality Improvement Survey
Contact customerservice@awhonn.org to receive a copy of this survey

Leadership Checklists

- Name of the nurse QI co-leader
- Name of the OB physician QI co-leader
- Name of the blood bank QI co-leader
- Name of the anesthesia QI co-leader
- Name of the Executive QI co-leader

Hospital Population Data

- Racial/ethnic distribution percentage for mothers giving birth at your hospital
- Distribution percentage of insurance coverage for mothers giving birth at your hospital

Hospital Birth Data

- Number of mothers who gave birth for calendar year 2012
- Percentage of mothers giving birth via primary cesarean (as a percentage of total mothers giving birth) in calendar year 2012
- Percentage of mothers giving birth via repeat cesarean (as a percentage of total mothers giving birth) in calendar year 2012
- Number of women who had greater than or equal to 4 units of blood transfused during the birth hospitalization in calendar year 2012 (optional)
- Number of women who had an ICU admission during the birth hospitalization in calendar year 2012 (optional)

Letters of Support

- Senior Leadership
- Nurse Leadership
- Anesthesia Services Leadership (optional)
- OB Physician Leadership
- Blood Bank Services Leadership (optional)

Other

- Reasons why you want to participate in the quality improvement learning collaborative
- Rate your hospital's experience in leading obstetric quality improvement efforts
- List the topics for recent quality improvement projects (optional)